

Kerrington County Primary School.

The opening of the new establishment was marked by the conspicuous absence of all concerned. The first day of Kerrington C. P. School was a holiday!

Summer Term 1981.

Our first day back was quiet and uneventful with just the expected handful of administrative difficulties to contend with.

Mr. Brian of the Fisherman's Mission offered a place to the infant department.

Mr. Daley, the supervisor of caretakers, visited to discuss problems with Mr. Steel (the caretaker) and myself regarding the allocation of revised cleaning hours.

A staff meeting was held to discuss arrangements for this term. The 5-aside football team competed with enthusiasm
