Musical Soiree – 16 May 2019

Our first musical soiree was fantastic. Thank you to all family members that attended – your support is greatly appreciated. Below is just a selection of the amazing feedback comments we received.

We are very proud of our choir and in they behaved, sang and played beautiful

Comments from Parents/Carers....

“Wonderful show. Very enjoyable and lots of lovely talent. Lovely to see all the hard work paying off. Well done Kenningtons, amazing, keep up the good work!”

“I think this event is a brilliant idea! Not only is it a good way to showcase amazing talent, it majorly helps to boost their confident. They will be big stars one day!”

“Great Event! In fact, one of the best I have attended at Kenningtons. Wonderful performance and the passion for music from Mr de Wet shines through. Nice size group. So great to mix with staff and parents.!”

“Super night, so proud of this school for the way they have encouraged my child and helped her grown into the young person she is today. Well done and thank you to all the Staff.”

“It is once again lovely to see the children doing something fun, that are clearly enjoying. Thank you for letting parents be parents be part of this. Thank you the staff and well done to the children”

“The school and staff are doing a good job. My daughter used to be very shy and clingy but this choir and singing club has really boosted her confidence. Thank you very much for all you do for the children.”
