The Big Thurrock Bake is bringing communities together in a special marquee at the Village Beach Festival on Saturday July 18th with a competition for the most impressive cakes. Anyone with a taste for baking is welcome to enter the competition, display their cakes and swap recipes.

There are five categories giving bakers a chance to demonstrate their skills. The categories are:

Best voluntary sector cake – Logo or image representing the organisation

Best healthy cake – open to individuals, organisations, groups or schools

Best budget cake – open to individuals, organisations, groups and schools

Best creative design cake – best cake or sugar work; open to all

Best international cake – open to all

There will be demonstrations of how delicious and nutritious meals can be made from the top ten Foodbank items in 'Ready, steady, cook!' running hourly from 12 noon. People are also encouraged to donate food to Thurrock's Foodbank. At 4.30pm it will be time for tea at the Mad Hatter's Tea Party. Everyone will be served with a free cup of tea and a cake, until supplies are exhausted.

The Big Thurrock Bake is organised by Thurrock CVS and Ngage Volunteer Centre. For more information contact: terry.piccolo@thurrockcvs.org.uk
